THE ALBERT LAGER PRIZE
FOR STUDENT INITIATIVE AWARDS

Award Description:
The Albert Lager Prize for Student Initiative Awards is an award designed by the Alumni Association to recognize current students who provide outstanding support, leadership and community involvement/service to their Faculty, Program or to McMaster University.

Award Eligibility:
Students:
(a) are being recognized for volunteer service, not a paid position;
(b) have completed a minimum of one full year of volunteer service;
(c) are currently enrolled in full-time or part-time studies at McMaster;
(d) are not a previous recipient of the award, as students are only eligible to receive one Albert Lager Award in their academic career.

The contributions of the nominee should encompass one, or a combination of, the following:
(a) Significant contributions to their faculty, program or the University and its students;
(b) Improvement of the quality of student life;
(c) Outstanding leadership on committees or university affairs;
(d) Support and service to the McMaster Alumni Association.

All nominations must include the name and contact information of at least one faculty, staff or committee chairperson reference. It is strongly recommended that those nominations submitted by student peers be accompanied by a letter of support from a faculty or staff member.

Awards Presentation:
Students selected will be recognized at the Alumni Gallery & MAA Awards Induction Ceremony held on Wednesday, May 31, 2017.

DEADLINE: February 27, 2017  NEW! EXTENDED UNTIL MARCH 5th!
